

SENIOR ACCOUNTANT

Since 1973, Skogen, Cometto & Associates, P.C. has been providing audit, compilation and review, attestation, accounting, management, computer consulting, and tax services to small businesses, governmental entities, non-profit organizations, energy, construction and agriculture industries, as well as individuals throughout Wyoming.

Due to staff retirement and firm acquisition resulting in growth and opportunity, we are seeking a dedicated Accountant with 5+ years' recent experience in public accounting to complete audit and tax engagements for individuals, small corporations, nonprofit organizations and governmental entities. You will review and complete financial statements and tax returns; plan & monitor engagements; conduct & supervise fieldwork; supervise & train staff; analyze internal controls and seek opportunities to provide additional services to our valued clients.

Position requires a Bachelor's degree in Accounting or related field; CPA license (or on track to obtain); experience with nonprofit and small government audits (school district experience preferred) and tax experience in completing Forms 990, 1040, 1041, 1120, 1120S and 1065. Experience supervising staff accountants and fieldwork and in planning financial engagements along with strong communication and PC skills are a must. Experience with CCH tax and audit products and with paperless engagement systems are preferred. Will consider individual with just tax experience who is willing to diversify into some auditing to meet needs of our clients.

This position is located in beautiful Casper, Wyoming. If you do not currently reside in the area, we will provide relocation benefits to the right candidate.

We are small (total staff of 13) and have developed a strong team of professionals capable of managing accounting engagements with integrity and interest and are proud to offer a competitive salary, excellent advancement opportunities and a comprehensive benefits package including cafeteria plan for medical insurance, dental/life/disability insurance, retirement, vacation and marketing incentives.

If you are the professional we are seeking, send resume and letter of introduction to roxy@cpawyoming.com. All inquiries held in strict confidence.
